Braxton advises clients on tax-advantaged strategies for investments, acquisitions, mergers, tax-deferred exchanges, reorganizations and tax accounting for operations. His practice also includes business succession and estate planning for investors and business owners. His client base is mainly closely-held corporations, partnerships, LLCs, estates and trusts. The clients are both domestic and foreign, advising US investors on overseas transactions and foreign nationals on US transactions. Braxton has a special emphasis on tax controversies and IRS cases in tax administrative examinations, collection, appeals and tax litigation matters in federal and state courts.
