

Richard L. Hurlbert Jr.
Partner

T (804) 771.5795
F (804) 771.5777
rlhurlbert@kaufcan.com

Richard is a member of the Executive Committee and the Managing Partner of the Richmond, Virginia office of Kaufman & Canoles. His law practice includes municipal (taxable and tax-exempt) finance, corporate finance, lender representation, and general commercial/business law.

practice areas

- Corporate & Public Finance
- Commercial

representative matters

- $215,000,000 syndicated loan facilities for educational services company
- $150,000,000 syndicated liquidity facility for University foundation
- Bond counsel, Borrower's counsel, underwriter/placement agent/remarketing agent counsel for multiple tax-exempt financings for qualified 501(c)(3) bonds (including hospital, continuing care retirement community, and other healthcare facilities), water and sewer / infrastructure/transportation bonds, exempt facility bonds (multifamily housing), empowerment/enterprise zone bonds, and municipal projects

recognition and honors

- BV[®] Rated; Martindale-Hubbell

associations

- Virginia State Bar
- Virginia Bar Association
- National Association of Bond Lawyers

education

- College of William and Mary; B.B.A., 1988
- George Mason University School of Law; J.D., 1992

press and publication

- Kaufman & Canoles Elects Executive Committee